

Curriculum overview

In this unit, we will be exploring the many connections between religious worldviews. We will explore these geographical and historical links between religious founders. We will look at how and where they found their inspiration.

Key vocabulary

|                 |                                                                                                                 |
|-----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Bahá'í   | A religious worldview founded in the Middle East in the 1800s by Baha'u'llah.                                   |
| Equality | All people having the same rights, treatment and opportunity.                                                   |
| Harmony  | A state of peace and agreement between people.                                                                  |
| Langar   | The Sikh community meal at the gurdwara, welcome to everyone and the name for the kitchen where it is prepared. |
| Merciful | To be forgiving and kind.                                                                                       |
| Origin   | The start of something.                                                                                         |
| Unity    | Working together and in agreement.                                                                              |

Our topic is...

Are all religions equal?

Sticky knowledge

- People from different religions believe some of the same things.
- Stories and scriptures give insights about how to live.
- There are historical links and connections between religions.
- The history of religion affects how people see their own and others' communities.
- There are some reasons for similarities and differences within and between religions and worldviews.

Links

The Bahá'í world view: Bing Videos

Langar: BBC Two - Pathways of Belief, God - Oneness and Equality, The 'langar' and 'seva'

World religion day was started by Bahá'í followers as a way to celebrate all religions and promote religious harmony.

The Golden Temple- Sikhism

Guru Nanak. The founder of the Sikh religion.